Good afternoon Vice Mayor,

Our data experts had most of it available, so they pulled together the tables below.

Caveats:

- Valuation table includes publicly funded projects
- Valuation has been rounded to the nearest $10,000
- We cannot separate out Industrial as a permit type, those are included in the Commercial column for both tables
- Residential Permits include new construction, renovations, demolition, and general upgrades (mechanical, electrical, plumbing)

Number of Permits Issued
	Residential	Commercial	Multi-Family	Sign	Total
2025 YTD (as of 11-21-25)	1,278	211	8	112	1,609
2024	1,501	256	2	137	1,896
2023	1,360	269	2	161	1,792
2022	1,440	262	12	172	1,886
2021	1,625	291	14	190	2,120

Valuation of Permits Issued
	Residential	Commercial	Multi-Family	Sign	Total
2025 YTD (as of 11-21-25)	$52,060,000	$234,120,000	$59,030,000	$650,000	$345,860,000
2024	$54,930,000	$105,040,000	$15,600,000	$850,000	$176,420,000
2023	$59,260,000	$101,180,000	$1,820,000	$880,000	$163,140,000
2022	$62,260,000	$44,710,000	$27,240,000	$820,000	$135,030,000
2021	$75,860,000	$120,780,000	$19,760,000	$1,230,000	$217,630,000

If needed, we can also pull number of residential units relatively quickly from the data.

Thanks,
Jeff
